Canopus House is an elegant and spacious 1920s house set in almost two acres of private, stunning gardens. It is located near to west Cornwall's beautiful beaches at Porthcurno, Sennen and Marazion along with several hidden coves with clear blue sea for swimming. Canopus House comfortably sleeps 9 (+1), with generous living space and parking on a private driveway for 5 cars.

The property is set up to be baby friendly with extensive baby and toddler equipment provided. The baby play garden includes Wendy house, swing/slide, picnic table, balancing logs and hammock chair. Inside the house, hampers in the living room contain children's toys and the kitchen is supplied with hand blender, children's cutlery and crockery and highchairs. Both bathrooms offer baby change tables. In the bedroom corridor a walk in cupboard contains a range of equipment: 2 x travel cots, baby rucksack, play gyms, bouncing chair, potties, toilet training seats, steps, change mats, bumbo chair, bed guard rail, 2 x baby monitors, plug socket covers, microwave steriliser. As the property is all on one floor, it offers a safe and spacious environment for small children to play.

“Absolutely stunning. Relaxation at its best. Location to die for!”
